Mental Health Resources

US City Police Departments currently collaborating with Mental Health Resources:

Arlington, Massachusetts

Arlington Police Department Link

Program Highlights

- Serves a suburban jurisdiction in close proximity to two urban centers
- Features a co-response program and targeted initiatives, spearheaded by a mental health clinician embedded in the police department, which includes the Jail Diversion Program, Hoarding Response Team, Elder Abuse Prevention Task Force, and Arlington Opiate Outreach Initiative
- Uses strong community partnerships to facilitate cross-sector case management
- Provides multi-modality training, which includes instruction in:
 - Mental Health First Aid (MHFA) for all officers
 - Trauma-informed care
 - Youth development/brain development
 - Context-specific crisis management and intervention techniques
 - Signs and symptoms of mental illness
 - Signs and symptoms of overdose
 - Narcan (deployment and distribution training)
 - Common psychiatric medications and usage
 - Suicide risk and prevention
 - Relevant laws and statutes
- Collects and analyses data comprehensively in a system that allows for specialized clinician access

Houston, Texas

Houston Police Department Link

Program Highlights

- Multi-faceted strategy staffed by various personnel including crisis intervention-trained (CIT) patrol officers, co-responder units, a Homeless Outreach Team, a Boarding Homes Enforcement Detail, a Chronic Consumer Stabilization Initiative, a Crisis Call Diversion program, a Senior Justice Assessment Center, and trained dispatchers and call takers
- Mental health training for all officers that includes:

- 40-hour Crisis Intervention Team (CIT) training for all cadets
- 8-hour annual advanced CIT classes
- State-mandated 8-hour CIT refresher for all officers with their Basic Peace Officer Certification
- 40-hour Mental Health Peace Officer class for veteran officers

Los Angeles, California

Los Angeles Police Department Link

Program Highlights

- Uses a multi-layered approach that includes triage by trained dispatchers, 24-hour triage line, co-response teams, follow-up case managers, and focused community engagement
- Features embedded mental health professionals in police agency
- Incorporates comprehensive data collection and information-sharing procedures
- Employs a robust training strategy that includes 40-hour Mental Health Intervention Training
- Engages community partners through the Mental Health Crisis Response Program Advisory Board

Madison County, Tennessee

Madison County Sheriff's Department Link

Program Highlights

- Participates in an inter-agency collaborative, which includes representatives from city, county, and state criminal justice and behavioral health agencies
- Operates in a primarily rural area with an increased population during business hours due to commuter influx
- Uses a comprehensive training strategy, including 40-hour Crisis Intervention Team (CIT) training
- Established processes for law enforcement personnel to identify and connect appropriate people to a 24/7 Crisis Stabilization Unit (CSU)
- Formalized data collection processes with information-sharing agreements

Madison, Wisconsin

Madison Police Department Link

Program Highlights

- Collects comprehensive data and shares non-protected information with line-level officers
- Provides training for all officers using “scenario-based” approaches
- Features a multi-layered approach with officers trained to be “mental health liaisons”
- Employs a full-time mental health team of sworn officers and in-house crisis workers
- Facilitates a Crisis Intervention Team (CIT) training program for outside agencies that includes: pre-service academy CIT, in-service CIT updates, basic CIT training, and advanced CIT

Mental Health Liaison Program

Portland, Maine

Portland Police Department Link

Program Highlights

- Features mental health professionals embedded in the law enforcement agency
- Operates within a small city, in collaboration with nearby rural community
- Facilitates internship program for Master’s level students
- Uses a co-response model with community-based support network
- Crisis Intervention Team (CIT) training for all officers

Behavioral Health Response Program

Jo Freedman Profile

Salt Lake City, Utah

Salt Lake City Police Department Link

Program Highlights

- Small city and rural community collaboration and coordination across multiple jurisdictions
- Employs a complementary three-team approach through the Community Connection Center (CCC), which includes:
 - Crisis Intervention Team (CIT)
 - Homeless Outreach Service Team (HOST)
 - Community Connections Team (CCT)
- The CIT Crisis Intervention Team (CIT) multi-county collaboration:
 - Provides 40-hour training for patrol and corrections-based academies

- Operates a dedicated CIT Investigative Unit with a detective to follow up on mental health calls for service
- Additional Training includes:
 - Crisis Intervention Team for youth: 8-hour academy
 - Autism training: Two 5-hour courses per year
 - Post-traumatic stress disorder specialization and officer wellness 8-hour course
 - Recertification and officer resilience CIT training

SLC Police Department Homeless Outreach Services Team \(HOST\)
Brandee Casias Profile

Tucson, Arizona

Tucson Police Department Link

Program Highlights

- Mental Health Support Team (MHST)
 - Co-responder program pairs MHST officers with mental health clinicians
 - Proactively and compassionately connects people who have mental health needs to services before, during, and after a crisis
- Crisis Mobile Teams (CMT)
 - Work in tandem with the crisis line to provide continuous access to services
- Crisis Response Center (CRC)
 - Provides 24/7 emergency psychiatric and substance addiction treatment services for both adults and youth
- Multi-tiered training is open to all levels of law enforcement, mental health workers, call takers and dispatchers, emergency medical technicians, paramedics, and firefighters. Training includes:
 - Mental Health First Aid (MHFA) and basic crisis mitigation and management training for all officers; training is also open to the community

Components to Consider for Dublin:

- Mental Health Peer Mentors
- Police Wellness Day
- Police Follow-up with Axis to connect with successful clients.
- Crisis Intervention
- Co-responder
- Additional Training

Alameda County

Community Assessment and Treatment Team (CATT) Pilot Program

M- Sun 7am-11pm

Response method: CATT will be dispatched through 911 calls and if necessary will work with local police officers and firefighters at the scene to assess people and get them treatment. The teams are planned to be based in Oakland, Hayward, San Leandro ,Fremont and currently also serve Piedmont and unincorporated areas of the county served by the Alameda County Sheriff's Office.

Team composition: Teams will include an emergency medical technician and a licensed behavioral health clinician.

Collaboration: A collaboration among core Alameda County Health Care Services Agency programs - Behavioral Health Care Services, Emergency Medical Services, and Alameda Care Connect (Whole Person Care) – as well as other partners – 911 dispatch, the County Sheriff's Office, city police departments, city health and human services, Bonita House and other relevant services - to ensure the crisis response system is more agile and flexible.

Services: CATT will provide mental health assessment, crisis intervention, medical assessment, information, referral, and transportation to a variety of voluntary settings. CATT hopes to divert individuals who are not in need of involuntary hospitalization or an emergency department whenever possible and will be designated to write involuntary psychiatric holds (5150/5585) and transport to emergency departments as necessary.

Budget Info: $9,878,082 over 5 years

The County's behavioral health department is paying for the program with funds raised in a sales tax measure residents of Alameda approved in 2004, specifically to provide healthcare to vulnerable residents. It is also using money that it receives from state via Mental Health Service Act.

Marin County

Mobile Crisis Response Team (MCRT)

1-415-473-6392

1-415-473-3344 TTY

M-F 8am-9pm

Sat 1pm-9pm

After Hours support from Crisis Stabilization Unit : 415-473-6666

Response method: MCRT will provide rapid crisis intervention in the field to address and de-escalate, as well as stabilize, an immediate crisis in the least restrictive environment possible.

Team composition: MCRT is a team staffed by two Mental Health Clinicians.

Collaboration: MCRT works collaboratively with the citizens of Marin County, community based mental health and substance abuse agencies, hospitals and local enforcement to increase the safety of individuals in crisis.

Services: Face-to-face crisis counseling and brief supportive interventions • Assessment of the individuals mental health and/or substance abuse needs • When necessary, facilitate transportation to Crisis Stabilization Unit (CSU) *Formerly known as PES • Coordination of appropriate and available community-based services for on-going treatment and follow-up • Family support services • Available for phone consultation to law enforcement, first responders, community providers, families and other community members

Expansion: A state grant has allowed Marin County to add a second mobile team to provide psychiatric crisis intervention, and officials may expand the program more if they can find the funding.

San Francisco County

Street Crisis Response Team (SCRT) Pilot Program

M-F 9am-6pm

Response method: The team is dispatched to address calls for service by the 911 call center. Through pairing behavioral health specialists and medical professionals, the Street Crisis Response Team can begin to respond to some of the calls that the SFPD currently answers. The goal of the new program is to provide an appropriate non-law enforcement response to behavioral health emergencies in San Francisco and divert individuals in crisis away from emergency rooms and criminal legal settings into behavioral health treatment.

Team composition: Each team includes a community paramedic, a behavioral health clinician, and a behavioral health peer specialist. Plan is to have at least six teams by the end of March 2021, with the goal of enabling the SCRT to operate citywide, 7 days per week and up to 24 hours a day.

Collaboration: The SCRT pilot program is collaboration between the San Francisco Department of Public Health and the San Francisco Fire Department with significant support from the Department of Emergency Management. The San Francisco Police Department will also be a key partner in the transition of certain types of 911 calls to the new teams.

Services: The SCRT aims to provide trauma-informed clinical interventions and care coordination for people who experience behavioral health crises on the streets of San Francisco.

Budget: 17 million over two years for four, three person teams

The approval of a business tax this past November and a windfall funds from 2018's Prop C "homeless tax" helped see the program to fruition.

Santa Clara County

Mobile Crisis Response Teams

1-800-704-0900

M-F 8am to 8pm

Clinician available 24/7 to assess and connect the caller to appropriate services

Response method: Mobile Crisis Response Teams screen and assess crisis situations over the phone and intervene wherever the crisis is occurring. These teams respond to individuals in crisis that exhibit mental health symptoms, may be suicidal or at-risk and need and evaluation for psychiatric hospitalization.

Team composition: Teams are made up of licensed clinicians and therapists with training and expertise in crisis response.

Collaboration: Mobile Crisis Response Teams work closely with law enforcement, crisis hotlines, the community and family members.

Services: Services provided include crisis screening, intervention, de-escalation services, and connect or refer people to community resources.

Language: Over 200 Languages are available through Language Service Line.

City of San Jose

SJPD Mobile Crisis Response Team Pilot Program

Response method: Officers in the program are dressed in a special uniform; receive additional mental health training and de-escalation training. They respond to calls with the county's Mobile Crisis Response Team.

Team composition: Team consists of two SJ police officers, one sergeant, and a clinician from the Santa Clara County Department of Behavioral Health.

Collaboration: San Jose PD in collaboration with Santa Clara Department of Behavioral Health.

Services: Responding to in-progress calls with officers, clinicians will help de-escalate and resolve emergencies, minimizing police intervention. Clinicians are able to provide crisis assessment, verbal de-escalation, crisis intervention as well as linkages to behavioral health services. The team of officers and clinicians will also conduct home visits through county referrals, identify people frequently in mental health crises, and connect them with services.

Budget: 750,000 for one year. Funded through 2018 Department of Justice Grant.

Plan to have a full-time unit by beginning of March. Plan to hire eight officers for the unit.

Eugene Oregon

Crisis Assistance Helping Out on the Streets

Eugene police non-emergency dispatch: 541-682-5111

Available 24/7

Response method: CAHOOTS (Crisis Assistance Helping Out On The Streets) is a mobile crisis intervention program providing free, confidential services in the Eugene and Springfield area 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Free response is available for a broad range of non-criminal crises, including homelessness, intoxication, disorientation, substance abuse and mental illness problems, and dispute resolution.

Team composition: The program mobilizes two-person teams consisting of a medic (a nurse, paramedic, or EMT) and a crisis worker who has substantial training and experience in the mental health field.

Collaboration: CAHOOTS is a collaboration between local police and a community service called the White Bird Clinic.

Services: CAHOOTS offers a broad range of services, including but not limited to: • Crisis Counseling • Suicide Prevention, Assessment, and Intervention • Conflict Resolution and Mediation • Grief and Loss • Substance Use and Abuse • Housing Crises • First Aid and Non-Emergency Medical Care • Resource Connection and Referrals • Transportation to Services

Budget: Eugene and Springfield: 2.1 million/year

The CAHOOTS program budget is about $2.1 million annually, while the combined annual budgets for the Eugene and Springfield police departments are $90 million. In 2017, the CAHOOTS teams answered 17% of the Eugene Police Department's overall call volume. The program saves the city of Eugene an estimated $8.5 million in public safety spending annually.

Training and Curriculum

Dublin: Community Task Force on Equity Diversity, and Inclusion

Additional Questions:

- What are the expectations for continuing and ongoing education and training? What are the results?
- Is additional training/education: valued, tracked, compensated, recognized?
- How many officers have earned formal education beyond Post training (AA, AS, BA, BS)? Is education sponsored?
- What, if any, in-service trainings are mandatory for current officers?
- What are the training evaluation tools, compliance, monitoring, results analysis?
- Would like to see a job description for an officer for the Dublin Police Services. Does DPS set higher standards than the statewide minimum standards?
- Following the demand for social justice across the country, what actions have the DPS taken?
- What is the Dublin Police Services philosophy regarding Community Policing? How is it defined, how is it formalized within the department?

Possible additional topics/areas for training (in-service training)?

- Interpersonal and communication skills
- Bias awareness
- Scenario-based, situational decision making
- Crisis intervention
- Procedural justice and impartial policing
- Trauma and victim services
- Mental health issues
- Analytical research and technology
- Languages and cultural responsiveness
- Community Relations
- Police Ethics and Leadership
- Understanding Culture and Race
- Understanding Racism
- Leadership and Integrity
- Community Policing
- Policing America

Notes/Best Practices:

- Community policing - combines elements of traditional and professional policing with an emphasis on community partnerships, prevention and collaborative problem solving to reduce crime, the fear of crime, and improve the quality of life. – Sir Robert Peel
- Based on the work of our Task Force, I would like to see the Dublin Police Services “reimagine” their services by conducting a systematic review and assessment that demands reflection on systemic injustice that compels innovative and creative solutions to emerge and implemented.

- Evaluate existing models and implement an alternative to law enforcement response system for crisis intervention and wraparound health and human services delivery
- Better align available resources with emergency response needs by establishing a pilot program for non-emergency calls
- Identify new curriculum, redesign and implement a culturally-responsive training program that incorporates de-escalation and mental health components into a comprehensive response for law enforcement
- Develop a program to promote and support holistic officer wellness
- Create listening opportunities with the community.
- Conduct community surveys on attitudes toward policing, and publish the results.
- Define the terms of civilian oversight to meet the community's needs.
- Call on the state Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST) Commission to implement training at all levels to ensure fair and impartial policing.
- Require higher education for law enforcement officers

The Role of Higher Education in Law Enforcement (LE) Hiring

- Most state & local LE agencies (81.5%) require only a high school diploma to be hired as an officer
- 81% of state & local LE academies do not have a minimum educational requirement that includes a college degree.
- California's minimum educational requirement for LE officers is a high school diploma, G.E.D. or other high school equivalency test.
- Although not typically required for LE employment, a college degree can make a difference when seeking promotion.¹

Regular Basic Course

For all city police officers, county sheriff deputies, and most other peace officer categories, the Regular Basic Course is the minimum entry-level training requirement. For all city police officers, county sheriff deputies, and most other peace officer categories, the Regular Basic Course is the minimum entry-level training requirement.

The Regular Basic Course (academy) is the entry-level training requirement for many California peace officers, as specified in Commission Regulation 1005. 40 POST-certified basic training academies, not POST, present the academy in both the Standard and Modular Formats. Those interested in obtaining academy-specific information on entry requirements, costs, and course schedules should contact the academies directly.

Course Formats

The Standard Format of the Regular Basic Course is delivered in a one-part instructional sequence with a minimum requirement of 664 hours. There are two presentation styles: Intensive and Extended. The Intensive Format is a full-time academy that typically meets Monday - Friday, 8:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. The Extended Format is a part-time or weekend academy that meets evenings and weekends.

The Modular Format of the Regular Basic Course is delivered in a three-part instructional sequence that concurrently provides a reserve training program since the three modules coincide with the training requirements for the three levels of California reserve peace officers. The minimum requirement is 730 hours, allowing necessary redundancy of instruction in critical skill areas due to the three-part sequence that can be taken over an extended period of time.

Curriculum

The Regular Basic Course curriculum is divided into 41 individual topics, called Learning Domains. The Learning Domains contain the minimum required foundational information for given subjects, which are detailed in the Training and Testing Specifications for Peace Officer Basic Courses. The training and testing specifications for a particular domain may also include information on required instructional activities and testing requirements.

Student Workbooks

Student workbooks are important sources of text-based information for the Regular Basic Course. These workbooks introduce each topic and contain self-assessment questions, chapter objectives, workbook learning activities, terminology and definitions. The Regular Basic Course Student Workbooks may be ordered online.

Student Preparedness

The Regular Basic Course prepares each student by providing hands-on experience, including weapons training, role-play scenarios, patrol procedures, emergency vehicle operations, and arrest and control techniques. The student must pass comprehensive, exercise, scenario, and physical abilities tests, to demonstrate readiness for entry into a department's standardized Field Training / Police Training Program. Specific minimum training and testing requirements for the Regular Basic Course can be found in Commission Procedure D-1. Academies provide requirements in addition to POST's and prospective students should contact the academies directly with any questions related to academy-specific requirements.

Individuals applying for a peace officer position in California are required to meet several statewide minimum standards for employment. These standards include:

- No felony convictions
- A fingerprint and criminal history check
- Meeting the citizenship requirement (Included are provisions for permanent resident aliens. See citizenship requirements FAQs.)
- A background investigation indicating the individual is of good moral character
- Minimum age of 18 years
- Minimum education of United States high school graduation or passage of GED or other approved equivalency test
- A medical and psychological suitability evaluation
- An employment interview
- A reading and writing ability test

TRAINING AND TESTING

SPECIFICATIONS FOR LEARNING DOMAIN #20

USE OF FORCE/DEESCALATION

October 1, 2020

I. LEARNING NEED

Peace officers must recognize that they have the authority to use objectively reasonable force to effect an arrest, to prevent escape, or to overcome resistance as authorized by the California Penal Code. For their safety, and for the safety and well-being of fellow officers, it is critical that peace officers know the laws governing the use of force.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- A. Discuss objectively reasonable force as stated by law
- B. Discuss the components of the Fourth Amendment standard for determining objective reasonableness as determined by the U.S. Supreme Court
- C. Explain the legal framework establishing a peace officer's authority during a legal arrest, including:
 - 1. A subject's requirement to submit to arrest without resistance
 - 2. Peace officer's authority to use objectively reasonable force during a detention or arrest
- D. Identify the circumstances set forth in the California Penal Code when a peace officer has the authority to use force
- E. Discuss the level of authority agency policies have regarding the use of force by a peace officer

II. LEARNING NEED

Peace officers must understand how the principles of deescalation can enhance contacts with the public and may result in improved decision-making, reduction in situational intensity, and opportunities for outcomes with greater voluntary compliance.

- A. Define deescalation
 - 1. Deescalation is the process of using strategies and techniques intended to decrease the intensity of the situation
 - 2. Recognize common misconceptions and benefits of deescalation
 - 3. Understand the history of deescalation
- B. Recognize the four core concepts of deescalation, to include:

1. Self-control
 2. Effective communication
 3. Scene assessment and management
 4. Force options
- C. Understand the components of a Critical Decision-making Model including:
1. Collect information
 2. Assess situation, threats, and risks
 3. Law and policy
 4. Plan
 5. Act, review, and reassess
- D. Recognize how tactical methods that use time, distance, cover, and concealment assist in deescalation
- E. Recognize how strategic communication may enhance deescalation

III. LEARNING NEED

Peace officers must recognize that they have a range of force options available to them. However, in all cases the use of force must be objectively reasonable compared to the threat, resistance, and other circumstances known to the officer at the time the force was used.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- A. Define the term “force option”
- B. Identify that the objective of using force is to overcome resistance to gain control of an individual and the situation
- C. Recognize force options and the amount of force peace officers may use based on the subject’s resistance
- D. Explain the importance of training and ongoing practice when responding to potentially dangerous situations that may require the use of force
- E. Discuss the importance of effective communication when using force

IV. LEARNING NEED

Peace officers must fully comprehend their authority, responsibility, and liability regarding the use of deadly force as authorized by law.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- A. Identify the legal standard for the use of deadly force
- B. Identify the factors required to establish sufficiency of fear for the use of deadly force
- C. Recognize facts an officer should consider when determining whether or not to use deadly force
- D. Discuss the role of agency policies regarding the use of deadly force

- E. Recognize the law regarding justifiable homicide by a peace officer and the circumstances under which the homicide is considered justifiable

V. LEARNING NEED

When a force option has been employed, peace officers' reports must include the critical information to ensure that the chronology, specifics of the events, and the people involved are properly documented.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- A. Describe why complete documentation of the use of force is critical to the peace officer and the peace officer's agency, to include:
 - 1. Justification for using force
 - 2. Relevant factors and detail
 - 3. Deescalation strategies and techniques utilized
- B. Supervisor responsibilities
 - 1. Use of force review and analysis
- C. State required reporting

VI. LEARNING NEED

Peace officers must be ready to, and capable of, safely taking control of a dangerous situation.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- A. Discuss factors that can affect a peace officer's response when threatened with danger, to include:
 - 1. Fear
 - a. Reasonable
 - b. Unreasonable
 - 2. Anger
 - 3. Indecision and hesitation
- B. Give examples of acceptable techniques for managing anger
- C. Describe the benefits of ongoing physical and mental training for peace officers involving the use of force

VII. LEARNING NEED

Peace officers must recognize the consequences of using unreasonable force, and their legal and ethical responsibilities to intervene if the force being used by another peace officer is inappropriate or unlawful.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- A. Explain the legal and administrative consequences associated with the use of unreasonable force
- B. Explain an agency's potential liability associated with the use of unreasonable force

- C. Explain the consequences of an officer's failure to intervene when unreasonable force is used by another peace officer
- D. Discuss immediate and delayed intervention techniques
- E. Discuss factors that may inhibit a peace officer from intervening in a situation where a fellow officer may be applying unreasonable force

VIII. REQUIRED TESTS

The student is required to demonstrate proficiency in the following competencies:

1. Use of Force – The ability to distinguish and apply objectively reasonable force options in given circumstances.
2. Problem Solving/Decision-Making – Analyzing situations and implementing plans to solve problems in a timely manner. Using verbal or physical skills to determine the appropriate resolution to a situation.
3. Legal Authority/Individual Rights – The identification of laws and constitutional rights governing consensual encounters, detentions, and arrests.
4. Officer Safety – The demonstration of situational and tactical awareness and appropriate response.
5. Communication– The use of effective verbal and non-verbal skills to convey intended meaning and establish understanding.
6. Ethics - Using accepted principles of conduct that govern decisions and actions based on professional values and expectations.
7. Stress Tolerance and Emotional Regulation - maintaining self-control and making timely, rational decisions in stressful situations.

Presenters must use the POST-developed Scenario Test and the POST Scenario Competency Evaluation and Grading Test Forms or presenter-developed forms approved by POST, which minimally include the performance dimensions used for this scenario test.

IX. REQUIRED LEARNING ACTIVITIES

- A. The student will participate in one or more learning activities from the POST-developed Instructor's Guide to Learning Activities for Leadership, Ethics and Community Policing (December 2005) or other comparable sources regarding use of force. At a minimum, each activity, or combination of activities must address the following topics:
 - 1. Exercise of leadership in the application of objectively reasonable force
