A WEEKLY UPDATE FROM THE CITY OF DUBLIN

VOL. 1 | ISSUE 7 | DECEMBER 20, 2024

CITY OF DUBLIN ANNOUNCES HOLIDAY CLOSURES, DECEMBER 24, 2024 – JANUARY 1, 2025

City Offices to Reopen on Thursday, January 2

The City of Dublin is implementing a holiday closure for non-public safety City services from Tuesday, December 24, 2024, through Wednesday, January 1, 2025. Police and Fire services will not be affected by this closure. Emergency personnel will remain on duty. Please call 9-1-1 if you experience an emergency. For non-emergencies, please call 925-462-1212. City of Dublin offices will reopen on Thursday, January 2, 2025. For more information, visit the City's website.

INSTALLATION OF NEW DUBLIN CITY COUNCIL

New Mayor and Two Councilmembers Sworn In

On Tuesday, December 17, the Oath of Office was administered to incoming Mayor Sherry Hu, Councilmembers Michael McCorriston (District 1), and John Morada (District 3). Outgoing Councilmember Janine Thalblum was recognized for her dedicated service to the City of Dublin. Additionally, Mayor Hu selected Councilmember Kashef Qaadri to serve as Vice Mayor for one year.

DUBLIN SELECTED FOR THE NEW MULTIUSE EVENT CENTER

New Facility to Boost Events and Economic Growth in the Tri-Valley

Visit Tri-Valley (VT) has officially selected Dublin as the site for its upcoming Multiuse Event Center. The facility is planned for the corner of Martinelli Way and Arnold Road, adjacent to the Dublin/Pleasanton BART Station and Highway 580.

The event center is designed to host a variety of activities, including sports tournaments, entertainment events, and corporate meetings. Its strategic location near public transportation and major highways aims to provide easy access for both residents and visitors.

For more information and updates on the project, including answers to frequently asked questions, visit VTV's website.

HOLIDAY TRASH COLLECTION AND

STREET SWEEPING SCHEDULES

Christmas Day and New Year's Day Observed

Due to the upcoming holidays, trash collection and street sweeping schedules will be altered. If your trash pickup day falls on Christmas Day or New Year's Day, service will be delayed by one day for the rest of the week, through Saturday. Street sweeping normally scheduled for Wednesday, December 25 (Route C) or Thursday, December 26 (Route D), will also take place one day later than its regularly scheduled day.

KIDS NIGHT OUT AT THE WAVE

Parents Can Enjoy a Night on the Town and the Kids Can Enjoy an Evening of Fun at The Wave

Parents, are you looking to schedule a date night? "Kids Night Out at The Wave," taking place on Saturday, January 18, 5:00 to 9:30 p.m., will allow you to enjoy a night out on the town, while your kids have a fun evening with friends at The Wave. The event will include a pizza dinner, swimming, games, and arts and crafts. Kids should bring a swimming suit, towel, and a change of clothes. The cost is $58 for residents (per child) and $69 for non-residents. Pre-registration is required at dublinrecguide.com.

SPORTS FIELDS CLOSED FOR THE WINTER

Preparing Fields for Next Season

Dublin's sports fields are now closed for annual maintenance and will remain closed until March 1, 2025. Closures include Ted Fairfield Park, Dublin Sports Grounds, Emerald Glen Park, and Fallon Sports Park. These fields are heavily used throughout the year for various sports and events. The closure gives our team time to repair the grass and baseball fields in order to be ready for another busy sports season. All synthetic turf fields will remain open.

THE WAVE WINTER CLOSURE

The Wave to be Closed December 20, through January 4, 2025

Just a reminder that The Wave will be closed for essential maintenance from Friday, December 20, through Friday, January 3, 2025. Regular programming will resume on Saturday, January 4, 2025.

PRESCHOOL EVENT FEATURING BINGO SHMINGO

Families Enjoyed an Engaging Event Featuring the Talented Performer, Bingo Shmingo!

City of Dublin preschool families were treated with music, laughter, and interactive fun as Bingo Shmingo visited Shannon Community Center on Wednesday, December 11. It was a wonderful opportunity for our students' families and friends to come together and celebrate the hard work our little ones put in this past year. Parents also had the chance to visit the classrooms and see firsthand what their children have been learning and exploring.

DUBLIN POLICE AND DUBLIN FIRE HELP TO SPREAD THE JOY THIS HOLIDAY SEASON

Police Gather Toys, Bikes, and More for Those in Need

On Wednesday, December 18, the Dublin Police Crime Prevention Unit and Alameda County Fire teamed up with Dick's Sporting Goods to put on their superhero capes, taking some wonderful children shopping for bags full of goodies. Many big smiles were found at this event.

The next day, Thursday, December 19, Cottonwood Creek School students delivered a large collection of toys to Dublin Police for those less fortunate. This collaboration brightened the holiday season for some Dublin residents, and gave the students an unforgettable experience, making them feel like real heroes in the community.

Dublin Police also received a generous bike donation from Dublin San Ramon Services District/Waste Connections. They donated a total of 34 bicycles and helmets for Dublin Police to give to children in need.
