

ORGANIZATION OF THE YEAR NOMINEE

DUBLIN BSA SCOUT TROOP 905

NOMINATOR: JANIE YEE

Dublin BSA Scout Troop 905 is the oldest and original Scout troop in the City of Dublin. The Troop has been serving the residents and the City of Dublin for over 40 years. Troop 905 is chartered by St. Raymond Catholic Church and aims to develop future leaders with charter development, citizenship training, service to others, and personal growth. Troop 905 has served the City of Dublin residents and surrounding community through several events including: *Partnering with the City of Dublin to conduct trash pickup and collection for the St. Patrick's Day Celebration and Splatter festival. * Assists in the City of Dublin Eggstravaganza event by distributing eggs in the field and assisting the kids in collecting eggs; helping with children's photographs with the costumed bunny; and monitoring the inflatable jumpers for the kids.

- * Collects Christmas trees from the city's residents after the holiday season so they can be recycled into compost.
- * Conducts local creek and hiking trail maintenance and trash removal.
- * At the City of Dublin Holiday Tree Lighting event, the troop helps kids write letters to Santa and assists in the tractor rides.
- * Helped St. Raymond Church during their Fall Festival with set-up, tear down, games, and trash clean-up.
- * Collects and respectfully retires U.S. flags throughout the year from the residents of Dublin.
- * Runs the collection location for Scouting for Food, an event that gathers food for the Alameda County Food Bank during their holiday food drive.

Troop 905 Scouts also conduct individual Eagle projects for rank advancement, which have included building and/or installing:

- * Dublin High School band instrument travel cases
- * Cottonwood Elementary School portable ball holder carts
- * Frederiksen Elementary School garden boxes
- * Dublin High School wrestling wall pads
- * Cottonwood Elementary School portable ball holder carts
- * Amador Elementary School portable ball holder carts